Career Aspirations

I'd really like a job where I don't have to work too hard and its got to pay well. I don't want to work in an office with any old people, they're so boring. My friend works in this place with loads of people in their 40's and it is rubbish. I don't mind joining at the bottom of the company but I'm not going to look at anything that wont let me be the boss in about 2 years. My mum says I have "natural leadership qualities."

Profile

I'm amazing, everyone tells me so. My mum says I'm absolutely the best at everything I try and she's not biased because she's my mum. Some of my teachers said I wasn't very good at stuff so my mum got them fired. Since then everyone has told me I'm brilliant.

Education

School was boring but I was definitely the most popular girl in my year.
